

2010 Scholarship Winners

---

Warren Chin

I am currently working as a Library Associate III at the Magazines and Newspapers Department at the Seattle Central Library. I am on my first year doing the online Master of Library Information Science program at the University of Washington. My main professional goal upon graduating is to focus with public libraries, especially teen services and English as a Second Language outreach programs. With this scholarship award, I can use it to take on courses that will strengthen my skills and knowledge needed to create productive workshops and programs.

John George

John George is in his first year at the University of Washington's Information School, where he is pursuing a Masters in Library and Information Science through their online program. He currently works at Seattle's Museum of History & Industry where he writes grants to support all aspects of MOHAI operations including the museum's research library. He plans to pursue work in archives, focusing on photographs and sound archives.
